(Approved 3-24-85. Revised 4-01-94)

In recognition of our high calling and the standards established by the Word of God for those involved in His service, we do hereby solemnly and willingly submit ourselves to these guidelines for conduct, performance, and behavior.

- a. We shall steadfastly uphold the Statement of Faith and policies of the Source of Light Ministries International, Inc.
- b. We shall endeavor to hold the total cause of Christ above any private, group, or special interests.
- c. We shall attempt to be governed by the highest ideals of administrative integrity and personal uprightness in all our personal and public relationships so that we may merit the respect of our fellow men and that the Lord Jesus Christ be exemplified in our lives.
- d. We shall aggressively pursue fiscal responsibility and transparency in our exercise of Christian stewardship.
- e. We shall be receptive to competent counsel from our colleagues.
- f. We shall maintain standards of high integrity and principle in practices of staff recruitment and shall avoid flagrant proselytizing.
- g. We shall vigorously guard confidences placed in us by those to whom we minister as well as to those who minister to us.
- h. We shall constantly strive to increase the professional development, competency, knowledge, skills, and effectiveness of persons serving in our profession.
- i. We shall cooperate in advancing the Gospel by exchanging pertinent information and judicious experience with our fellow laborers in Christ.
- j. We shall express an opinion or disclose information about fellow laborers in Christ or sister organizations only when it is based solely upon verifiable facts and adequate knowledge, and only to those who have the legitimate right and need for such information.
- k. We shall vigorously maintain promotional accuracy in all internal and external contacts.
- l. We shall continually pursue wholesome relationships with churches, particularly the commissioning churches, which enable us to exercise our God-given call to service.

We desire that God would grant us the wisdom, discernment, and fortitude to abide by, and excel in these standards. Our earnest desire and fervent prayer is that we may each be made more consistent with the likeness of God's Son, so that the world may know Christ. We desire to be sensitive to the needs of our own lives and responsive to the multitudes round about us.
